

'Community champion' in south Etobicoke sought for LAMP award

Do you know someone who has made a difference in south Etobicoke?

Consider nominating him or her for a LAMP Community Health Centre Award of Merit. Each year, LAMP officials search out community champions who go beyond the call of duty, who through their actions and kindness make this a better world. Winners inspire others and help to build a healthy Lakeshore community. Nominees must live, work, volunteer or own a business in the Lakeshore.

NOMINATION DEADLINE

The nomination deadline is this Friday, April 19. Visit www.lampchc.org to fill out a nomination form. Completed forms may also be dropped off at LAMP, 185 Fifth St.

Categories include: Safe Neighbourhoods to live and work; Strong Families and Good Neighbours; Arts and Culture; Clean Environment; Safe Affordable Housing; Healthy Affordable Food, Social Service Programs; Parks, Recreation and Leisure; and History and the Past.

Awards recognize individuals, groups, institutions and businesses who improve the quality of life for others.

Winners will be recognized at the 14th annual LAMP CHC Awards of Merit barbecue Tuesday, June 4 at 7 p.m. at LAMP CHC.

For more info about LAMP Community Health Centre, visit www.lampchc.org